Belinda Watson

Belinda Watson is a retired band director of 40 years. She started teaching in Laverne, Oklahoma in 1982, then taught in Kansas, Oklahoma, and Nevada before retiring in 2022 from Mustang Public Schools.

She is a woodwind specialist, and has held positions as a beginning band director, an assistant high school director, a high school head band director, and a middle school band director, as well as being an adjunct college private lesson instructor. She has traveled with her bands to Europe, the east and west coasts, Mexico, and all over the U.S. Her bands have earned distinctions and honors, but her proudest accomplishment is building a love and respect for the arts and music among her thousands of former students.

She is a two-time Teacher of the Year, once in Las Vegas, Nevada and once in Mustang, Oklahoma. She believes in the life lessons that children learn while learning to play in a musical ensemble, and sends love and respect to the parents, families, and friends that support the kids as they strive for excellence. She believes in the power of FUN and PLAYFUL interactions with kids, and is not one to take herself too seriously. Her dogs and cats, though, take her very seriously.

Enjoy the program, encourage the kids, and have some fun today!

Jeff Jahnke

Jeff Jahnke currently serves as Director of Bands at Piedmont High School. He has previously led high school programs at Edmond Memorial, Jenks, Putnam City North and at Lovejoy High School in Texas. He has additionally served as the Assistant Director of Bands at the University of Oklahoma and at Moore High School.

His primary responsibilities in Piedmont involve leading the instruction of the Wind Symphony, Pride of Piedmont marching band, and jazz ensemble. Additional instructional time is spent assisting with both bands at The Middle School of Piedmont as well as 6th grade beginning classes at Piedmont Intermediate.

Jeff is a graduate of the University of Oklahoma and also earned a Masters degree in Conducting & Instrumental Pedagogy from Oklahoma State University. He is a former student of Gene Thrailkill, Dr. Roland Barrett, Dr. William Wakefield, Dr. Irvin Wagner, and Dr. Joseph Missal.

Caroline Hand believes in the ability of ensemble music making to create connections among student musicians and audiences alike, and searches for ways to enhance these bonds. Dr. Hand has the opportunity to facilitate these connections by conducting the Symphony Band, teaching conducting courses for undergraduate and graduate students, and visiting schools in the region.

Dr. Hand is in demand as a conductor across the region and nation with numerous band appearances, most recently as the guest conductor for TMEA and ATSSB Region 21 clinics in Texas. An avid supporter of community engagement through music, Dr. Hand spearheaded the Sensory Friendly Concert Series in the University of Oklahoma School of Music. She has been selected to present on her innovative and engaged teaching methods such as the Orpheus Project and facilitating high impact collaborations with university music ensembles. She is also pursuing research and study of works for wind band by female composers and is dedicated to well-rounded programming to expose her students to a wide array of styles, composers, and historical periods all with the aim of communicating to the listener.

Dr. Hand previously held the position of associate director of bands at Ball State University and taught public school in Mountain Home, AR and Tyler, TX ISD. She earned degrees from the University of Minnesota (DMA conducting), Baylor University (MM band conducting), and Oklahoma State University (BME).
