Percussive Arts Society International Convention. In 2018, the Henry MS Band Program received the Texas Bandmasters Association Exemplary Middle School Band Award and was named a National Band Association Programs of Excellence Blue Ribbon Award winner. Most recently, the Vista Ridge High School Band Program was invited to perform at the 2025 Midwest International Band and Orchestra Clinic.

An active clinician and adjudicator across Texas, Mr. Herrings is a member of the Texas Music Educators Association, Texas Bandmasters Association, Texas Music Adjudicators Association, and the American Bandmasters Association, and serves as an educational consultant for the Conn-Selmer Division of Education. He also serves as President of the Phi Beta Mu Alpha Chapter, TMEA Region 32 Band Division Vice President, and the Region 32 TBA Representative. Most recently, he was inducted into the Conn-Selmer Institute Hall of Fame.

Mr. Herrings is passionate about motivating young musicians to achieve excellence by sharing his deep love for music with them each day. He feels honored and blessed to have been supported by his mother, grandmother, mentors, band directors, and close friends who have shaped his career. Above all, his students have been, and continue to be, his greatest inspiration.

High School Honor Band
Elizabeth Peterson, Clinician

Dr. Elizabeth Peterson, Emeritus Professor, retired from her position as Associate Director of Bands at the University of Illinois School of Music in May of 2022. Peterson conducted the Illinois Wind Orchestra, served as the placement coordinator for student teachers and taught several courses in instrumental conducting. Prior to her appointment at the University of Illinois, Peterson was a tenured professor of music education at the Ithaca College School of Music. During the seventeen years she spent at Ithaca College, Peterson conducted numerous ensembles including the Symphonic Band, Brass Choir and All-Campus Band. She taught courses in conducting, undergraduate and graduate courses in music education, and supervised student teachers. Peterson was the co-conductor of the Ithaca Concert Band, an adult community band for fifteen years.

Dr. Peterson continues to be active as a guest conductor, adjudicator, and school music consultant. Peterson has served as interim conductor of the Interlochen Arts Academy Wind Ensemble, the Penn State University Wind Ensemble and the Colorado State University Symphonic Band. She presents clinics at the local, state and national levels in the field of music education and has published two books: “The Music Teachers First Year: Tales of Challenge Joy and Triumph,” and “The Music Teacher’s Later Years: Reflection with Wisdom.”

Peterson is a graduate of the University of Michigan where she received a Bachelor of Music Education and Bachelor of Arts in English and studied trumpet with Armando Ghitalla. She received a Master of Music in Music Education and Trumpet Performance from Northwestern University, where she studied trumpet with Vincent Cichowicz. She earned a Doctor of Musical Arts in Music Education from Shenandoah Conservatory. Prior to her appointment at Ithaca College, Peterson was an arts administrator and director of bands in the public schools of Ohio and Illinois. She played trumpet in the North Shore Community Band under the direction of John P. Paynter. Dr. Peterson is a member of the American Bandmasters Association and serves on the Board of Directors for the Midwest International Band and Orchestra Clinic. Beth currently lives in Fort Collins, Colorado with her husband, Steve and their Golden Retriever, Stanley.

7th Grade Honor Band
Timothy Hendrix, Clinician

Timothy Hendrix is in his 18th year of teaching and currently serves in his 11th year as Director of Bands at Bentonville High School in Bentonville, Arkansas. He conducts the Wind Ensemble and Symphonic Band and oversees the nationally recognized Bentonville PRIDE Marching Band. Prior to his tenure in Bentonville, Mr. Hendrix taught at Jonesboro High School, Paragould High School, and Stuttgart Junior High School.

Mr. Hendrix’s ensembles have been consistently recognized for their musical sensitivity, innovation, and artistry. The Bentonville High School Wind Ensemble was selected to perform at the 79th Annual Midwest Clinic and was a Premiere Ensemble at the 2019 National Concert Band Festival, where they became the first high school ensemble to perform Jim Stephenson’s Symphony No. 2, “Voices.” The ensemble was also selected as the ASBOA Class 7A State Honor Band in both 2022 and 2024.

The Bentonville PRIDE Marching Band is a 11-time Bands of America Super Regional Finalist and Medalist, a 4-time Grand Nationals Semi-Finalist, and a two-time Grand Nationals Finalist. The ensemble is also a 8-time (7 consecutive) Arkansas 7A State Marching Champion and was named a Sudler Shield Award Winner by the John Philip Sousa Foundation in 2023.

Mr. Hendrix has been recognized with several honors, including Bentonville High School Fine Arts Teacher of the Year (2017,2025), the Phi Beta Mu Arkansas Young Band Director of the Year Award (2015), and Region 8 Teacher of the Year (2013). He is an active member of the Arkansas Bandmasters Association, ASBOA, and Phi Beta Mu. He holds a Bachelor’s Degree in Instrumental Music Education and a Master’s Degree in Education from Arkansas State University. Before beginning his teaching career, Mr. Hendrix served as a French horn instrumentalist in the United States Navy Band, stationed at Pearl Harbor.

In addition to his teaching responsibilities, Mr. Hendrix is a frequent clinician and presenter, having led professional development sessions for music educators on topics including leadership, program culture, and building sustainable instructional systems. Mr. Hendrix is married to Nakeli Hendrix. Together, they have two children: Sophia, a clarinetist and aspiring educator, and Dean, who is active in robotics and STEM competitions.

Junior High Honor Band
Robert Herrings, Clinician

Robert Tyrome Herrings, III is in his twenty-second year of teaching and has served in Leander ISD since 2004. Before his appointment as Director of Bands at Vista Ridge High School, he was the Director of Bands at Artie Henry Middle School, where he taught from 2004–2024.

Mr. Herrings earned his Bachelor of Music Education degree in 2003 from Baylor University in Waco, Texas, where he studied under Michael Haithcock, Jeff Grogan, Dr. Kevin Sedatole, and Barry Hopper. During his time at Baylor, he performed in the university’s wind bands and was a member of the Baylor University Golden Wave Band.

During his twenty-year tenure at Artie Henry Middle School, the Henry Middle School Honors Band achieved national acclaim. The ensemble was selected to perform at the 2008 and 2013 Western International Band Clinic in Seattle, Washington; named the TMEA Class CCC Honor Band in 2010, 2014, 2018, and 2024; and invited to perform at the Midwest International Band and Orchestra Clinic in 2010, 2012, 2016, and 2022. In 2011, Mr. Herrings and the program received the prestigious John Philip Sousa Foundation Sudler Silver Cup Award, and later that year he was recognized as the Phi Beta Mu Outstanding Young Bandmaster of the Year. In 2014, the Texas Chapter of the American School Band Directors Association honored the Henry MS Band with the Outstanding Band Program Award, and the Henry MS Percussion Ensemble was selected to perform at the
